

This is a sample game. The spaces along the tracks where game characters (pawns or figures) would move are not marked off. Separate the track into the number of spaces you think would be good and then go on to add to or modify the rules. This drawing is an exploded view of the house where the Three Bears live and where Goldilocks visits.

The Further Adventures of ...

Goldilocks Goal :
 get to the house before the Bears leave for their walk. She wins because it completely changes the story ... she doesn't eat the porridge, break the chair, or fall asleep in the bed.

Three Bears Goal :
 get back home before Goldilocks goes to sleep. They win because they change the story ... Goldilocks is caught in act and may not be able to escape out the window.

You are hereby granted permission to use this form for your personal use and to pass a copy on to a friend or family member. All copies must retain the original contact and copyright information. Publication of this form in print, on a website, or by any other means requires permission of the copyright holder.